Numismagram Newsletter #7 (VII/2018)

As we approach the Fourth of July, we here at Numismagram thought it appropriate to feature a number of medals commemorating and honoring various individuals and themes throughout this nation's history, from presidents of the past and those who might have been, to a statue once regarded as a beacon to the tired and poor--and which may one day again.

Meanwhile, as you are receiving this, we are traversing Peru high and low, and likely in the middle of a hike to Machu Picchu. As such, please note that phone and text capabilities will be off until 11 July. Email access will, cell coverage permitting of course, be the best form of communication. Have a happy and safe holiday!

You are receiving this message because you have expressed an interest in our material or have purchased from us in the past. If you wish to no longer receive these updates via email, simply reply that you would like to be removed and we will do so.
